

INNER CHILD CARD READING

These cards connect to your energies, and reveal deep-set issues that you may or may not be aware of, but which are responsible for the conflicts and struggles that you face. These readings are specifically related to one particular challenging situation per session, so that each situation is answered in depth.

The situation could deal with relationships of any kind, either personal or professional, or with emotions like grief, shame, guilt, anger, envy and so on.

Each session is for 45 minutes. If you wish to avail of these readings, please email me ellaeenah@jadefirelight.com
Please mention specifically that you would like an Inner Child Card Reading.
